The original location of Bean Fiber Glass on Peterborough Street near the entrance to the present-day Rivermill Condominiums. (Formerly Jaffrey Mills. It was probably the last of the White Bros. structures to be built on the site that was for many years Jaffrey’s major employer.) The company later moved to 26 Union Street, which had been built in the 1920s for the New Hampshire Match Company and later used by W. W. Cross. The building stood where the new baseball field is today.

BEAN FIBER GLASS, INC.

Bean Fiber Glass, Inc., manufactures a woven fiber glass mat for use as the principal raw material in fiber glass molded products. It is used by molders throughout the country in the manufacture of a wide variety of products such as boats, tanks, shelters, cargo containers, missile housing, concrete forms, bath tubs, silos, and car bodies. None of its products is used locally.

The company was founded in 1957 by William Coleman and Joseph Manning with financial backing by D. D. Bean & Sons Co., Inc. Starting as a division of D. D. Bean & Sons, Bean Fiber Glass became a separate corporation in 1959. The parent company remained as majority stockholder until 1961 when their interest was sold to an outside group of investors. Coleman and Manning, both graduate engineers, have been chief operating and executive officers of the company since its founding. The company’s production equipment was designed by them.

The company is located on Peterborough Street in one of the former White Brothers’ storehouses.

Bean Fiber Glass

We know it’s hard to believe but here are two young entrepreneurs—Bill Coleman and Joe Manning—at the start up of Bean Fiber Glass. This photo appeared on the front page of the very first issue of the new Monadnock Ledger, November 21, 1956. They’ll tell us about the early days of the company and how it developed over the years.

WHAT were they thinking when they wanted to start a new textile mill in New England? All other textile mills were either moving south or had ‘gone south.’
WHAT was the reason they chose Jaffrey?
WHAT did they do to convince D. D. Bean & Sons to back them?
WHAT were the ups & downs of the enterprise over the years? And what the heck is ‘woven roving’?

Bill and Joe will cover almost a half century of Bean Fiber Glass history in 30 minutes or less. Don’t miss it!

Looking ahead — Upcoming Programs

Thursday April 23: Friends of the Jaffrey Library program on John Winant, 6:30 at the Library • Saturday July 25: Riverfest & JHS Pop-up Museum • Thursday August 13: Annual Meeting, Mark Cournoyer on Cournoyer Funeral Home Centenary • Sunday October 18: Annual Autumn Outing, Frametown (tentative) • Thursday December 10: JHS-Civic Center Christmas party • Thursday February 11, 2016: Pot Luck • Thursday April 14, 2016: Scott Edwards of Scott’s Clock • Thursday August 11, 2016: Annual Meeting John Peard, Sr. on Red’s of Jaffrey (tentative) •
Greetings to all,

Our February Pot Luck was a pleasant and well-attended gathering wedged in between snow storms. Each table had an item from the Society’s collections to identify. We also have a Jaffrey Quiz with the winning table receiving Valentine’s Day chocolates. Try your hand at the Quiz at http://www.rs41.org/jhs/quiz.pdf We’ll include the answers in the next Newsletter.

Our Hearse House project is taking a temporary breather. The Selectmen have decided that placing it on Town-owned land will require a warrant article at the next Town Meeting. As a consequence the Officers and Directors decided to withdraw our application to the Historic District Commission. The extra time will allow us to study other location options. We are planning to hold a ‘charrette’ on site sometime this summer. The architecture/engineering class at Conval is still using the Hearse House as this year’s project. It is now focusing on the timber frame. (You will find some further information at http://www.rs41.org/jhs/hearse.htm)

Our Dean Murder Project is progressing well. (The main working website is http://www.rs41.org/jhs/dean.htm) The first meeting of the Dean Murder Research Group was held at the Civic Center on February 23rd. (See http://www.rs41.org/jhs/drgr.htm) The next one will likely be in September. The scanning of original documents continues. Progress can be seen at http://rs41.smugmug.com/Jaffrey/Dean-Murder.

We have a number of volunteer opportunities for those with the time and interest: Indexing the various Town histories; periodically picking up ephemera from around Jaffrey (business cards, flyers, menus, etc.); photography (there’s one particular project we have in mind); becoming involved with Ebay on the Society’s behalf; biographical indexing of the Dean Murder; and so on.

Scott Edwards of Scott’s Clocks in Peterborough paid a visit to the Civic Center recently and gave our Laban Ainsworth tall case clock a once-over after it was moved to allow for re-decorating the conference room. The clock will be cleaned and serviced by Scott, a process that he will describe in a Jaffrey Historical Society illustrated program in April 2016.

The Society is once again co-sponsoring a program with The Friends of the Jaffrey Library. On Thursday April 23 the JHS and Hesse will present ‘John Winant: New Hampshire Man of The World –The Forgotten Giant.’ Winant was a three-term governor that of US Ambassador to Britain for most of World War II. At the Library at 6:30pm. I look forward to seeing you on April 9th at the Civic Center to learn about Bean Fiber Glass.
